This matter was heard on June 6, 2016 upon the request of the United States Pretrial and Probation Office for a finding that defendant violated the conditions of supervised release. The defendant was present and represented by Attorney Jacqueline A. Johnson.

The violation report was referred to Magistrate Judge Nancy A. Vecchiarelli who issued a Report and Recommendation on May 17, 2016 [Doc. 269]. following additional conditions: 1) the defendant shall successfully complete 4 months of community control sanction; 2) the defendant shall provide his supervising officer with detailed reports concerning his job search efforts; and 3) the defendant shall successfully complete Cognitive Behavior Therapy. While under community control sanction the defendant will only be released for work, for medical treatment or for religious services.

The Court admonished the defendant to comply with all conditions of supervised release and directed the U.S. Probation Office to inform the Court of any further noncompliance.
